On the morning of Wednesday, June 9, the Ambassador said that he had been doing a good deal of talking among the Latin American diplomats and that he felt that Mexico would go with us on the Communist resolution. He said that Ambassador Chiriboga is leaving on Tuesday for Quito to try to get his Government to go along and feels sure that he will be able to. He says that the Bolivian Government will also probably go along.

He urged that, if possible, we advance the date for the meeting.
